

Privacy Policy

By using the service of FitMeIn, you are allowing us to collect and use your information, The Data Policy is here to help you understand the kinds of data we collect, how is your data used and how we share this data with Google.

FitMeIn operates the www.fitmein.com website, which provides the SERVICE.

This page is used to inform website visitors regarding our policies with the collection, use, and disclosure of Personal Information if anyone decided to use our Service, the FitMeIn website.

If you choose to use our Service, then you agree to the collection and use of information in relation with this policy. The Personal Information that we collect are used for providing and improving the Service. We will not use or share your information with anyone except as described in this Privacy Policy.

The terms used in this Privacy Policy have the same meanings as in our Terms and Conditions, which is accessible at www.fitmein.com, unless otherwise defined in this Privacy Policy.

I. What kind of data we collect from you?

- Your geographical location

Your location can be collected via your device's GPS and IP address as well as the Wi-Fi access points or cellular tower that your device is connected to.

- Your calendar

When using FitMeIn's calendar function, it is necessary for you to upload or import the calendar files from either your Google Calendar or ICAL. This can be done through the "add a calendar" function placed on FitMeIn website. Please note that we will only need your calendar when you are using the calendar function. Therefore, the functionalities of other features of the FitMeIn platform won't be affected if you do not want to upload or import your calendar.

- Your email addresses

When you register an account on the FitMeIn platform, you will need to provide an email address.

- Your destinations

When using FitMeIn's navigation function, we will collect and store the destinations you entered and the route generated.

- Start and end time of your day and time to spend at each destination

To use the itinerary function, you will be asked to enter the time your days starts and ends as well as how long you wish to spend at each destination you entered. We will store these data for further processing.

II. How do we use this data?

- Use of your geographical locations

When you use the navigation function of the FitMeIn platform, we will need to collect your location data to determine your current location in order to calculate the fastest route to your destination. During the navigation process, we need to keep tracking your location to make sure you are on the correct route, the progress of the navigation process and estimate the time of arrival.

- Use of your imported/uploaded calendar

We will process your calendar and store the locations of your events and time interval between events.

Then, we will use our algorithm to find out when is the best time for you to visit your pre-entered addresses.

- Use of your email address

We will store your email address in our database. You will need to use the email address you provided to log into your account.

- Use of your destinations

We store the destinations and routes of your navigations which allows you to re-use the route or share your route with others. Please note that your routes can only be viewed by others if you choose to share it.

- Use of the start and end time of your day and time to spend at each location

For the itinerary function, we will use our algorithm to process these data and give you an itinerary for your day. Which will include the order of your destinations and the fastest routes between each destination.

III. How is the information shared?

The FitMeIn platform uses data provided by Google maps. Some of your information will be shared with Google via the Google Map API service provided by Google. Here's Google's Privacy Policy [<https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=en-US#infocollect>], Terms of Service [<https://policies.google.com/terms?hl=en-US>], Google Maps Terms of Service [<https://cloud.google.com/maps-platform/terms/>] and Google API's Terms of Service [<https://developers.google.com/maps/terms-20180207>] to help you understand how Google collects and uses the data you provided to us.

IV. Security

We value your trust in providing us your Personal Information, thus we are striving to use commercially acceptable means of protecting it. But remember that no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable, and we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

V. Children's Privacy

Our Services do not address anyone under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal identifiable information from children under 13. In the case we discover that a child under 13 has provided us with personal information, we immediately delete this from our servers. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your child has provided us with personal information, please contact us so that we will be able to do necessary actions.

VI. Changes to our policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. Thus, we advise you to review this page periodically for any changes. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page. These changes are effective immediately, after they are posted on this page.
